

It's Official! Title Updates in 2022

'Alternative Medicine' is no longer a contemporary definition for what we all do and love. The integrity of our name will be preserved:

Journal of Integrative and Complementary Medicine (JICM) will be it,"

—JICM Editor-in-Chief Holger Cramer, PhD

To more accurately represent our content, we are very pleased to announce that in the New Year, the Journal will be renamed to Integrative and Complementary Therapies,"

—ICT Clinical Editor Robert Rountree, MD
